No Compromise in Bridge Fight

BALDWIN NAMED BRITISH PREMIER

Accepts King George's Invitation to Form Cabinet

EARLY DEBT PACT

Washington Views Settlement Near in War Debt

LONDON, May 22.—Stanley Baldwin, chancellor of the exchequer in the old Bonar Law ministry, has been named premier of Great Britain.

Baldwin was summoned to Buckingham Palace by King George this afternoon and after a conference it was announced that he had accepted the invitation of the king to form a new government.

The announcement was made at 4:30 p. m.

Half Hour Conference

Selection of Baldwin was made after the king had indirectly communicated with leaders of the conservative party, of which Baldwin is a member.

The conference between the king and the new premier lasted more than an hour.

WAR DEBT FORESEEN

(Copyright 1933 by United Press) WASHINGTON, May 22.—Selection of Stanley Baldwin as prime minister of Britain means an early final agreement between the United States and Great Britain on the funding of Britain's $4,000,000,000 war debt.

Baldwin went to the royal offices in a taxicab from number 11 Downing street. His wife accompanied him. As soon as he arrived he was ushered into audience with King George, and the offer was made.

Few Cabinet Changes

Baldwin was the popular candidate for successor to the office made vacant Sunday night by the resignation of Bonar Law, whose throat illness made it impossible for him to continue.

Baldwin is expected to receive the automatic resignation of the old Bonar Law cabinet members forthwith and the new cabinet probably will be appointed tomorrow. There will be no material changes.

COMMENCEMENT HERE JUNE 1ST

School Board Designates Graduation Date

School will open next fall on the 17th of September and will close May 30, 1934, for the 1933-34 season.

This announcement was given out this morning by Superintendent G. M. Sims following a meeting of the city school board held last night.

At the conference of school officials, it was decided that commencement exercises for the graduating class from the high school this year will be held on Friday night, June 1.

Seeds for Beladone

In this connection, according to announcements made this morning by Sims, the school board authorized the reservation of the two entire front blocks of Franklin auditorium for the relatives and friends of the graduating class. Admission to these blocks, Sims said, will be made by ticket only.

Children unaccompanied by parents will not be admitted to the auditorium," Sims asserted.

Expert Capacity Crowded

The school board wants this exercise for the benefit of high school students and adults, and they do not want the seats occupied by children who will sleep throughout the program.

"Keep the children at home and let them sleep in bed," he said in conclusion, "and save the space they would take up to no advantage for grown people who will want to witness the exercises."

TRUCK AND HORSE IN COLLISION; HORSE HURT

Until Monday, horses had escaped injury in Port Arthur's epidemic of auto accidents.

Then an old Dobbin drawing a mail wagon, was struck by a laundry truck out in the 2800 block on Twelfth street, receiving a deep gash in one of his front legs, according to reports at police station, made by J. D. Chaney, 1307 Fourteenth street, driving the laundry truck, about 5 o'clock p. m.

Chaney said the horse was not seriously injured.

WOMEN'S VOTE LOOKING SLIM

Primary Record Expected to Be Cut in Half

LATE VOTE DOUBTFUL

Refinery Poll After 5 May Swell Totals

A lighter vote than was cast in the city's primaries over the same length of time is reported at three o'clock this afternoon in the run-off election.

Contestants in the election are Word, incumbent, and Covington for chief of police, and Wade, incumbent, and Warren for commissioner of public property and improvements.

Women's Votes Small

Up to 3 o'clock the expected large vote from women voters had failed to materialize. The turnout of refinery employees also was problematical at 3 p. m., due to the fact that the majority of these voters will be unable to reach the polls before 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Last minute rallies of candidates and their friends were held through-out today, and both chief of police candidates were offering voters free rides to the polls.

Betting Reported

Banners of rival candidates were being hoisted on automobiles as late as 2:30 this afternoon.

Heavy betting was indulged in the chief of police race this afternoon, even money being offered, according to reports.

Buys $750,000 Chateau For $10,000 in Marks!

NEW YORK, May 22.—Sigmund Rothschild, Houston, Texas, a cotton manufacturer, sailed Thursday for Hamburg to occupy a $750,000 chateau near Baden-Baden which he acquired for $10,000 when marks slumped.

Rothschild has lived in Texas for 15 years, going there as a poor boy. It took him two years to collect his family, scattered by the war. They now are awaiting him in the chateau.

YOAKUM MAN SHOT TO DEATH

Traveling Salesman, His Close Friend, Surrenders

YOAKUM, Texas, May 22.—The body of J. H. Warden, agent for the American Express Company here who was shot and killed yesterday while sitting in his office, was to be forwarded to McKinney today for burial.

Fred C. Allen, a traveling salesman and a close friend of Warden, surrendered to officers immediately after the shooting. He was given a preliminary hearing and released under $8,000 bond.

Both men have families here.

Bill to Kill Texas Tech Appropriation on Hook

AUSTIN, May 22.—The bill prepared by Representative Winfree, Baker and Hardin, which would repeal the appropriation feature of the Texas Technological College act, was expected to be introduced in the house today.

Introduction of this measure will be the signal for a fight between east and west Texas representatives, it was believed.

RECOGNITION?

It's Near, Creagor, Who May Be Ambassador, Says

DALLAS, May 22.—Mexico stands on the threshold of recognition by the United States, R. B. Creagor, of Brownsville, chairman of the Texas republican executive committee, believes, he said in an interview here today.

Creagor, a close friend to President Harding, is generally regarded as the man the president will name as ambassador to the southern republic, if that country is recognized.

Lone Bricklayer Walks Out in Dignified Parade When Strike is Called

NEW YORK, May 22.—The bricklaying force of the Thompson-Starratt Company consisted of only one mason when a strike was called. He walked out in dignified parade.

All his companions on the job previously had been temporarily dropped from the payroll.

60 Hours to Pistol Bark in Whisker Fad

Two days and three nights—the mere trifle of 60 hours now intervene before Port Arthur's latest venture gets under way.

The Whiskers Club.

It's a Quarter Centennial affair. The contest closes and the winner will be announced at the close of the centennial celebration here on July 4.

Remember, the club must start off with a membership of at least 25. If 25 candidates can be secured, it is just as easy to get 100. Have you signed up yet? Cards ready tomorrow.

There's nothing hard about growing chin whiskers. It is an opportunity to look shaving off of the daily routine. And then, too, maybe friend wife will let you stay at home for a while. Persons who haven't had time to eat and shave in the same day and just naturally had to eat, can feel at ease as a member of the whisker sporting fraternity.

It's the only opportunity on record anywhere that has hesitated while you make up your mind. There's sixty hours remaining before the pistol bark and the race begins.

Every male booster in Port Arthur should be getting set to toe the scratch.

Let's go!

GARNER IMPROVING

Carl C. Garner, secretary of the Y. M. B. L., and assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and Shipping, who underwent an operation for appendicitis last week, is steadily improving, authorities at Mary Gates hospital said today.

Garner was stricken suddenly with an appendicitis attack, and in an immediate operation ordered by attending physicians.

Beaumont News Suspends Pending Settlement, Report

Assets of Approximately $70,000, Liabilities of $131,000 Are Reported Enumerated on Petition

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy will be filed in United States district court in Beaumont today or tomorrow against the Beaumont News Publishing company, it was understood today.

Because of financial difficulties the newspaper has found itself unable to continue publication under present conditions, it was said, and publication of the daily editions will be discontinued temporarily at least.

There is no edition of the newspaper published today, the suspension being effective after yesterday's edition.

The bankruptcy petition is said to list the News Publishing company's entire assets as approximately $70,000 and its liabilities as $131,000. The names of five employees of the newspaper appear on the petition. The petition probably will receive a hearing before U. S. Commissioner J. B. Morris within the next few days, according to the report.

RUSH WORK ON BRIDGE SPAN

Flooring to Be Laid as Soon as Span is Lowered

With structural steel work on the additional span for the Pleasure pier bridge virtually completed, electricians are rushing the work of installing the control systems for the motors which will operate the span.

The electric cable is laid across the canal from the control house, on the city side, to the operating machinery, located on the foundation work of the new span, and work now being done is wiring up the electric controls.

As soon as the new span can be lowered, and the meeting of the ends of the two spans adjusted, flooring will be laid on the new span, engineers in charge of the work said today. In order to make the ends fit perfectly, it may be necessary to cut off a part of the old span at the end, but this will be a comparatively small job, according to the engineers.

One of the features of the bridge operating control is the electric interlocking apparatus, which will work between the ends of the two spans when they are lowered into place.

NON-STOP FLIGHT

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, May 22.—The proposed non-stop flight from the Gulf to the Great Lakes will be started from Ellington Field at Houston and end at Detroit, according to an announcement made here today.

The aviators expect to make an average speed of 100 miles an hour.

DENY BEAUMONT HAS LEGAL RIGHT

Claim Throws Wrench in Harmony Wheel

CITIZENS HERE INSISTENT

Demand Rights Be Served By Moneys Apportioned

Insistence by Beaumont public officials and members of the chamber of commerce who were present at the highway bridge across the Neches river at Ash street be built out of the $2,000,000 bond issue funds, taking precedence over all road building virtually threw a monkey-wrench into the hearing held in that city yesterday to attempt to reach a program of action.

Meeting Splits

At the end of the session in the afternoon there had been reams of discussions, with the entire county arrayed against Beaumont in her bridge efforts, not even a semblance of an agreement was reached.

However, due to lack of information regarding bridge expenditure and the social status of the moneys derived from the bond issue sale—that part which already has been spent and the amount still available—County Judge Johnson, chairman, adjourned the meeting leaving with it the proposal that committees be named from Chambers of Commerce of each locality affected and endeavor to attain a common understanding from all the facts.

It is presumed that delegations of citizens will again crowd the commissioners' court room on next Monday, whether or not the suggestion regarding committees is carried out.

In the meantime, expenditure of bond issue funds on roads goes on apace, further diminishing the remaining dollars of the original $2,000,000 voted.

The Plot to Bridge "Cram"

The idea for harmony among all the factions frequently was injected into the discussion yesterday. Practically all delegations declared for a peaceful settlement of the difficulty that now confronts the county—that of lack of funds with which to carry out the original program of road construction and building of a bridge.

McElyrea was at work at a local refinery at the time of the accident.

An election for officers and directors, to take office in June, will be held soon, it was announced by President H. C. Crawford.

Miss Lawless declared today. All mothers who wish to have their babies examined for physical defects are invited to attend the clinic, she said.

EXTRA

Word Wins in Two Boxes But Loses at Linn's

TOTAL VOTE IN THREE CITY BOXES
Streets and Improvements	Ward 1	Ward 2	Ward 3	Total
Wade	345	385	1383	2113
Warren	198	324	883	1375
Chief of Police
Word	316	359	818	1493
Covington	226	362	1415	1993

Covington for Chief of Police and Wade for commissioner of public property and improvements were swept into office at the runoff today.

Covington led Word in only Ward 3, but his vote there was sufficient to carry him over the line with a comfortable margin.

He defeated Word by an even 500 votes.

Wade led Warren for commissioner by 738 votes.

Political dopesheets were partially upset by the returns, if street comment this morning is to be believed.

At 5:30 this afternoon at least 150 people lined up at Linn's awaiting turn to vote.

The last minute revival, when the day's indications were that the political wad was almost shot at 3 o'clock this afternoon, was considerable of a surprise to street corner politicians who earlier in the day had prophesied little interest in the runoff.

All officers in the new administration take office May 29, according to J. Wistner, city attorney, except Ben H. Wiley, elected commissioner of public records and finance in the city primaries, who was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Commissioner A. A. Potteat.

City officers receiving majorities in the primaries and who did not have to enter the run-off election day were Mayor J. P. Logan, re-elected mayor to serve a two year term as full time mayor; Vernon J. Wistner, re-elected city attorney, defeating his only opponent, Judge J. E. Rose in the primaries; and Ben H. Wiley, who received a majority over all his opponents for the office of commissioner of public records and finance in the primary election.

NAME JURY IN REHLING CASE

Port Arthur Man on Trial in Berwick Murder

Selection of a jury in the case of the state of Texas vs. P. W. Rehling, charged with murder in connection with the shooting of Freeman Berwick in Port Arthur a year ago, was completed in the 60th district court at Beaumont this morning, and the state began the substantiation of testimony.

Rehling was arrested in April, 1922, following the fatal shooting of Berwick in a room of his residence at 1717 Houston avenue. The shooting is alleged to have occurred on the night of April 19.

According to statements made the police at that time by Mrs. Freeman Berwick, wife of the dead man, the shooting resulted from an argument arising from a conversation Rehling is alleged to have conducted over a telephone in the Berwick home to a girl. Rehling, according to his wife's story, is said to have remonstrated with Rehling concerning the conversation, and the shooting followed in an adjoining room.

JAIL FOR HOUSE OF DAVID CULT

Judge Threatens Leaders Who Fail to Testify

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., May 22.—Additional members of the House of David will be jailed if they refuse to testify in the probe of the cult, Judge Harry Dingeman announced today. Two of the sect are now in jail on contempt charges.

Judge Dingeman said conspiracy warrants may be issued for reluctant witnesses, and announced that evidence has been procured sufficient to arrest several colony members for minor offenses.

Kate Glover, a former room-mate of Elta Dorpha Smith, who is wanted to tell who is the father of her child born at the colony, today testified, Perry Bulley, a chauffeur, was also summoned in an effort to determine which direction the girl fled when she left the colony after becoming a mother.

$10,000 OFFERED FOR POLICEMAN'S SLAYER

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 22.—"Dead or alive," $10,000 reward. That is the price set by Cleveland city council on John L. Whitfield, indicted for the murder of Policeman Dennis Griffin which news here impels to the search today.

COVINGTON AND WADE VICTORS

 200; Ward No. 2, Wade 260, Warren 264; and in Ward No. 3, Wade 2,222, Warren 1,375. Totals, Wade 2,112, Warren 1,375.

The vote yesterday in the commission race was 525 less than that polled on May 5. On May 5, there were 4,015 votes cast in this race, while yesterday there was but 3,488.

Women visited the polls throughout Tuesday with regularity. At all times there was a sprinkling of "female fans" waiting their turn to cast a ballot. An indication of the small to cast women's vote, however, is found in the actual count of women to appear throughout the day at Box 3 in Ward 3. But 348 women's votes were recorded there, which box is larger by several times than either of the other two city polling places.

Newly elected or re-elected city officials who will take office on May 20 include:

Mayor, J. P. Logan, re-elected May 5 election; Vernon J. Wistner, re-elected city attorney on May 5; and Ben H. Wiley, elected commissioner of public records and finance on May 5. These are in addition to the two officers filled in the run off race.

Wiley at present is serving an appointive term, filling the vacancy caused by the death of former Commissioner A. A. Poteet.

No Lack of Interest
 Street corner politicians' predictions of "lack of interest" in the run off went awry in the later hours of voting. With many voting throughout the morning hours, and early afternoon, polling took a tremendous spurt after 3 p. m., the heaviest polling being done after that hour.

In all boxes, there was a waiting list of would-be voters, variously numbering from four or five at Boxes 1 and 2 up to 45 or 50 at Box 3. Citizens crowded the downtown streets until late hours last night hurriedly grabbing up every word of the finishing of the race.

There was an evidence of surprise on all sides in the outcome of the race for the office of chief of police, according to well-informed "street politicians."

FLIVVERS IS FLIVVERS.
SO TAFT PARKS OUTSIDE

WASHINGTON, May 22.—William Howard Taft, chief justice of the United States, was ordered to "step lively" at the exercises at Lincoln Memorial in honor of Henry Bacon, the architect.

A crossing policeman, seeing a small car of popular make weaving its way into the grounds, shouted: "Go the right way with that machine and don't block the way of the president."

Mr. Taft, from within the car, explained—but all looked alike to the officer. Being a former president, chief justice of the United States and chairman of the Lincoln Memorial, he was not to be trifled with.

His private "jitney" was parked outside, while President Harding presented the designer of the memorial with the gold medal of the American Institute of Architects.

HOOPER RE-ELECTED RAIL BOARD HEAD

CHICAGO, May 22.—Ben W. Hooper, was re-elected chairman of the United States Railroad labor board, G. W. Horgan, opponent of Hooper, was named vice chairman.

AUSTIN, Texas, May 22.—The Coffee gross production oil tax bill was cut from five to three per cent and reported favorably four to three by the house committee on revenue and taxation last night.

$80,000 for Mr. Sharp
 "However, before reaching Tegucigalpa, I received counter orders which caused me to deliver the $80,000 to a Mr. Sharp in Guatemala."

Carson mentioned the names of a number of persons who, he said, were involved and they are being investigated. Meanwhile, Carson, instead of being sent back to the United States, is being held here pending an investigation into charges of conspiracy against the public order.

If this story of the plot is true, it probably explains the organized efforts that have been made to liberate Mrs. Phillips since her arrest. On one occasion, a considerable number of men were involved in such an attempt.

Every precaution is being taken to get Mrs. Phillips out of the country before an armed attempt is made to free her. A special automobile, guarded, was sent to fetch the man pouch containing the extradition papers. Mrs. Phillips and her sister were unexpectedly placed in an automobile and whisked away toward Puerto Cortez, one of the Atlantic ports of Honduras. She was escorted by Under Sheriff Biscanese, Detective Hunter and local authorities. Just before this her trunk and other baggage were opened and searched by Hunter, who sought important papers. The United States minister stated that Mrs. Phillips would enter America through New Orleans. Her sudden removal from Tegucigalpa caused much surprise here.

SCOTT-WALLER SALE
DRAWN BIG CROWD

A large crowd awaited the opening of the doors at the Scott-Waller Furniture company's store, Procter and Dallas, at 9 o'clock this morning when a sale of aluminum ware went on. Novel tents were used in demonstrating the utensils, and in order to expedite handling the people visiting the store, it was arranged for them to go through the establishment and out at the rear door.

CLARA PHILLIPS

ed power and money would be hers. Starting her story at the beginning, Mrs. Phillips said:

"My escape was easy. There was nothing sensational about it. I filed some bars of the prison and quietly left, passing right under the noses of the guards."

"Through arrangements that had been made in advance, it was not difficult for me to leave Los Angeles and enter Mexico. There I met Jesse Carson and my sister, Rita May Jackson. There we were captured by Mexican revolutionists. We were held for several days, and we did not know what they intended to do with us."

"When we were liberated the Mexicans left us at a place near the American border. We sought refuge in a wild, desolate volcanic region. It was peopled only by wild animals—no human beings or houses."

Carson a "Savage"
 "We suffered many hardships, but finally reached Mexico City where I thought would be safe. But this man Carson is a savage. He talked freely of who we were, and told me it would be necessary for us to continue on to Honduras, where I would be perfectly safe."

"Then Carson told me that it was best for us to go to Tegucigalpa as the government was to be overthrown. We would then have power and money, he said. Our safety would be absolutely assured, he pointed out, because we would be in control of the government."

"So we came here, but something seemed to have gone wrong. There were counter orders issued and instead of seizing the national palace we found ourselves arrested."

Carson, called before the authorities, made a detailed statement involving many prominent Hondurans who are residing abroad.

"On March 25, in Vera Cruz, Mexico, a Mr. Ward gave me $80,000 to take to a revolutionary leader in Tegucigalpa, he said."

"This leader was to direct an armed uprising, which would overthrow the government. The steamer Telmantepec left Vera Cruz with arms and ammunition for the Honduran revolutionists. The actual military movements against the administration were to be conducted from the Casino Espanol in Vera Cruz."

VAUGHN WANTS ROADS ASSURED

After That Does Not Object to Neches Bridge

County Commissioner W. A. Vaughn of Precinct No. 3 has no objections to a bridge across the Neches river at Beaumont, provided its construction does not take away money from county roads or necessitate another bond issue, he made known today.

He stated he will bend every effort toward seeing the original program of road building, contemplated in the election call for the $2,000,000 bond issue already passed, carried out. If there is not sufficient money available to carry out that program, Mr. Vaughn believes that means should be found for getting the money, other than a curtailment of the county road building or issuance of further bonds.

Position Summed Up
 In substance Mr. Vaughn's stand on the solution of the difficulty arising in distribution of the proceeds from the two million dollar bond is summed up as follows:

He favors construction of a bridge across the river at Beaumont together with all road projects as originally outlined.

He favors an adjustment of the bridge proposition that is satisfactory to all concerned.

He does not altogether favor calling a second bond issue, but rather believes that all projects should be adjusted so as to be completed within the original allotment of funds derived from the $2,000,000 bond issue.

"It is hardly fair to the taxpayer to burden him with any bond issue that can possibly be eliminated," Mr. Vaughn said today.

No. 3 Within Allotment
 "The road program in Precinct 3 is well within the original allotment and the precinct funds, to complete the Sabine-Port Arthur road. While it is true that approximately 7 per cent of my original allotment was applied on the bridge project, the McFaddin Beach road will have to remain in the condition it is now. This road, however, is in first class condition for a road of that type."

Seize Drug Smuggler
Suspect; Aides Sought

SUPERIOR, May 22.—Federal narcotic agents aided by J. A. Perry, deputy United States marshal, Saturday returned to Duluth with Denny Baker, alleged drug smuggler, who was captured in a little bar paper shack on the American side of the Canadian boundary near International Falls, Minn., late Thursday.

Baker was unable to provide the $1,000 bond set by Court Commissioner Otto Poirer, Virginia, and will be held in the St. Louis county jail pending action of the United States grand jury next July.

The capture of Baker was made only after planning and a long investigation. It is believed he obtained large quantities of drugs on the Canadian side and sent them to Milwaukee, Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Superior and Duluth by mail. It is believed he has confederates in all of these cities and in Pittsburgh.

The officers obtained entrance to the shack through a rear door which was unguarded. Other doors were barred. A quantity of morphine was found on Baker's person. In a bureau in the shack an extra driver was found filled with United States paper currency. It was not disturbed.

$10,000 Ice Cream Soda

NEW ORLEANS, La., May 24.—An unprecedented jump in the price of ice cream sodas with the customer attempting to reap the profit was recorded here recently when Mrs. Liane Romagosa of Thibodaux, La., filed suit against a local soft drink dealer for $10,000 damages alleged false accusations. According to the charges contained in the petition Mrs. Romagosa and a friend entered the drink establishment and ordered two ice cream sodas. The friend, a lady consumed her soda in short order and departed, after paying for the "treats," leaving Mrs. Romagosa to take her time. When Mrs. Romagosa finished her soda and left the place, she alleged, the manager followed her and proclaimed in a loud tone that she was beating the house out of the price of two sodas. Mrs. Romagosa asks the damages for the humiliation.

SEWER PLANS TO BE CHANGED
 Beaumont Finds Gravity System Too Costly

Special to The News.
 BEAUMONT, Texas, May 23.—Following a special meeting of the city council and board of commissioners held late Tuesday, it was announced that plans to extend the Beaumont sanitary sewer system with the $200,000 sewer appropriation of the municipal bond issue, will be entirely changed.

The proposed change, as outlined before the meeting by City Manager George Reink and City Engineer H. M. Fulweiler, calls for abandonment of the originally planned gravity system of sewers and institution of a pumping system.

The new plan would reduce the sewer mileage considerably. It was pointed out, but few system made because of necessary depth of from 18 to 20 feet for the portion of the system that is gravity line which caused the contractors' bids to run extremely high.

The soil of Beaumont makes it difficult to sink sewers to this depth. It was contended also that practically as much sewers can be constructed with the pumping system as with the gravity system as the latter method costs so much.

The proposed change plans appeared to meet with the approval of both boards although there was no expression by a vote. The plans will be taken up again at a future meeting.

150 MEXICALI CHINESE DEAD
 Tenderloin of the World's Toughest Town Guttled

EL CENTRO, Calif., May 23.—Mexicali, which has been called "the toughest town on the North American continent," had the heart of its Chinese tenderloin district burned out during the night with the known loss of four lives.

The blaze destroyed two blocks. Firemen and rescue workers are digging in the hot ruins for bodies of Chinese believed trapped in subterranean passages when the fire swept over head. Mexican soldiers are guarding the scene to prevent looting.

150 Victims, Estimate
 An accurate estimate of the total dead is impossible. Police estimated there might be as many as 150 Chinese under the ruins.

The fire started in a motion picture theater, ending a panic. In a mad rush for the doors, many were trampled.

Flames swept the "Black Cat" and the A. B. C. Club, two of the "lively" resorts in town and licked up many gambling houses and dives, whose inmates, picturesquely attired, ran into the streets. Business blocks, including the branch of the First National Bank of Mexico, the adjoining American town, also burned.

The damage is estimated at $2,000,000. The fire was brought under control late last night by dynamiting. Firemen from Calexico and En Centro, in California, helped fight the flames.

The Chinese section has a network of tunnels beneath it like those of the old San Francisco Chinatown. There are several miles of these passages, where whites never penetrated. The orientals retreated to them during the heat of the day, and in chambers opening from them, opium smokers lay in their bunks.

Chinese who escaped from the tunnels, said that large numbers were in them when the fire started, and that they had no warning before the entrances were choked with masses of blazing timber. It is feared that those trapped below ground were smothered. Firemen are raving the smoldering embers endeavoring to find the entrances.

BUT YET A WOMAN

"Just one more round," cried the crowd.

"Indeed, girls, you must excuse me," said Letitia Brown, glancing uneasily at the clock. "My husband will be expecting me and it is already 11 o'clock."

"Oh, she's tied to her husband's apron strings. Let her go and let a little fellow with a tilted over her eyes, who was sitting upon the table."

Letitia blushed. All her womanhood was aroused. She had not the moral courage to resist the taunts of her companions.

"All right, girls," she cried, striking a match on her bloomer and lighting a dainty cigarette. "Fill 'em up again."

The attendant brought another saucer of ice cream all around and Letitia soon forgot her waiting husband in the merry click of the spoons and the chatter of lively voices. Outside in the biting cold the thin, shivering form of her husband crouched against the wall, as he listened to the sounds of revelry.

A burly policeman passed and gazed suspiciously at him and then went her way crunching peanuts and twirling her rolling pin. He could stand it no longer and opened the side door of the saloon and entered.

"Letitia," he cried, "come home with me. You have already had enough cream."

The woman staggered to her feet. "John," she cried, "this is no place for you. Go back to the children."

He turned sadly away. "Very well," he said. "That good looking young lady in the next house is staying with them while I—"

"You wait for me, John Brown," said the lady sternly. "I'm going home this minute. Good night, girls."

TO A PORTRAIT
She might have been some princess fair.

From Nile's banks, where lotus blooms;

Or one of Pharaoh's daughters, there

Asleep amid long moulded tombs.

Or fair princess sweet and proud,

Or Gipsy queen with regal smile;

Helen of Troy, or Guinevere,

Or Vivian with her witching smile.

Or Zerk's Queen, or Lillie Clay,

Or Mrs. Langtry; or a maid

Of fashion, who, in costume smart,

Her charms is wont to have arrayed.

But none of these she is—not even

Andromeda chained on the rocks;

I found her lovely, lone and lorn.

A chronon on a cracker box.

YOU AND I

Lawyers are smacking their lips at the 750 million dollars which the Sioux Indians, by court suit, demand from Uncle Sam as damages for seized lands.

Attorneys who are handling the case estimate that it will take from five to 10 years to fight it upward through the courts. They refer to appeals, of course, and the final battle in the United States Supreme Court. With that much money invested, 10 years is a conservative estimate.

If the Indians happen to win this case, they might go on and sue for the total of "seized lands" taken from them by their white conquerors.

How much? About 200 million dollars, our entire national wealth.

DEFENDS

When the Indians had America, it wasn't "worth" a dime a square mile. Now the whole country (national wealth) is 700 billion dollars, or $100,000 a square mile.

The difference between those figures represents improvements by the white man. Just like real estate —worthless in itself, value is altogether in human activity that takes place on it or nearby. If the white man and his civilization left America and the old-time Indian could return, they'd be glad to trade large chunks

for a rask of brandy or peck of beans

again.

LOOT

With the Sioux Indians suing our government for 750 million dollars damages for "seized land," an American gets thinking of how we stole most of our country from its original red owners.

The viewpoint in some European countries is that we wouldn't be so righteously opposed to the principle of conquering weak neighbors if we hadn't already seized everything we wanted.

However, the ghosts of the old-time Indians must be having a good time as they see the money we've stolen ourselves into. A patriotic

Indian once carried a banner over his head that said: "We took this country from the Indians. They can have it back after prohibition goes into effect."

PROGRAM FOR HORTENSE SMITH RECITAL THURSDAY EVENING IS ANNOUNCED

MUCH interest is being manifested in the Hortense Smith recital at Franklin auditorium Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock.

Over three hundred tickets have been sold for the affair, and a large audience is expected to greet Miss Smith tomorrow evening when she presents her program of arnis, folk-songs, groups of dialects and piano-lyrics.

Harry Silber, secretary of the Civitan club, is directing the recital, which is being given under the auspices of the Civitan club for the purpose of raising funds to wipe out the deficit sustained by Miss Smith and the club in bringing the "Tolliver Trio" to Port Arthur last fall.

Mr. Silber announced that tickets were still on sale at the Elkhorn Shoe company, and that there were no reserve seats at the recital.

The program for the recital follows:

- (a) To a Hill Top, Ralph Cox; (b) Song of a Robin Woman (from Shakespeare), Cadman.
- (a) Roses in June, German; (b) Wind Song, Rogers.
- (a) Lazy Song, Lawson; (b) The Cumin' Little Thing, Hageman; (c) Supperin', Bergen.

In the games during the morning hours, Mrs. R. McFadden and Mrs. J. D. Denny were awarded prizes for high score, and Mrs. J. A. Gibson and Mrs. T. G. Dellinger, Mrs. E. L. Caldwell, Mrs. C. E. Yates, Mrs. G. C. Weddell, Mrs. H. M. Heffner, and Mrs. J. W. Williams.

On next week Mrs. H. L. Phillips will be the club's hostess.

The bride, who has been spending several months in Port Arthur with her sister, Mrs. E. M. Hood, of 922 Tenth street, was attended in an attractive train of navy blue tulle with hat and accessories in harmony.

The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hood. The groom is in the employ of the Texas Company.

Drops Adenites With One For 2 to 0 Win

Cross, Strengthened By Addition of New Men, Gave Second Whitewash From Fast Texas Stars in Five-Inning Game.

By BILL ABONER

Tommy Gardner's men were right yesterday, and they triumphed the Texas Stars their second time this season. Choate, hurling a one-hit game, blanked the Adenites, 2 to 0, before an enthusiastic crowd of ball fans on Lakeshore.

The Islanders jumped their win in the early stages, and grabbed two runs in the last inning of the initial frame, when Black and Thomas scored on Funk's long three-base hit to left.

After that, it was a pitchers' battle the rest of the way, and Mazor, who put in his reappearance in Port Arthur, landed himself in great form for the Texasos. He struck out seven of the men who faced him, and was nipped for but three hits during the melee, and only once did they come connected in a bunch.

Choate, possibly playing his farewell trip with the Islanders, pitched Choate for several short binges, which, however, found resting, places in the infield, for the majority, and cost out at the initial gap.

Mazor, who was hurling his first game for the Adenites, allowed but two strolls to the first station, and handled himself nicely through the clash.

The Texasos lost the toss, and Lase, who clouted out a circuit drive at Crowley and helped the Adenites win over the Louisiana boys last Sunday, led off. He went out on a pop-up at first base, Choate to Black. Palmer suffered a similar fate, and Romero, who came next in line, got on when Funk missed a third strike. Echart struck out, retiring the side.

Gunn opened the fireworks for the Islanders and Mazor, hurling a one-hit wild, let one slip, Cliff taking first on "hit by a pitched ball." Black popped into a fielder's choice, Gunn being forced at second, Palmer to Priester. Thomas got in front of one similar to the wild throw that struck Gunn and also went to first, Black moving to second. Choate whiffed the breeze. Funk looked the offerings of Mazor over and clouted the longest hit of the game for three stations, going Black and Thomas in front. Kane flew out to Kring, retiring the Islanders.

Thus ended the scoring, all of which happened in that fateful first period. Choate, however, faced Choate in the first of the second, one of which strolled to first on four wide ones. And likewise, four faced Mazor in the last of the same frame, but "Maz" after allowing one hit, retired down three in a row, and retired the Islanders.

The only hit the Texasos nicked Choate for occurred in the first of the third, when Palmer connected with a slow one that fell just in front of short, and the batter bent it out at first. Choate unwound a wicked arm from then on, and continued his blanking delivery to hold the Adenites to the 2-0 finish.

It was a great exhibition of both hurling and fielding, and both the Texasos and Islanders looked stronger and more formidable yesterday than at any time since the season opened. With the return of Mazor to add to their pitching staff, a new find in Lave, Earhart holding down a good station in the outfield to strengthen that portion of the nine, the Texasos Stars have a fast number that will be hard to beat.

Likewise, the Islanders have enrolled some new recruits that will be hard to outplay. Two of them made their appearance yesterday in Island uniform, and answered to the names of Martin and Linzay, both of whom played well. Linzay was offered two chances in center field on long high flies yesterday; he went after 'em both and sacked the pill without a bobble. And Martin holds down the third bag on the infield like an old-timer. He played fast and it appeared hard yesterday to drive one through him. He had three chances in the game and accounted all of them, one going to his credit for an out and two for assists.

Today, the Citizens and the Gulf-mix-up, their second encounter of the season, and it is expected a hot session will result, since both find themselves again tied up for first position.

PHILADELPHIA WINS
PHILADELPHIA, May 23.—Pittsburgh routed Philadelphia in the second game of the series, 12 to 6, driving three pitchers from the mound during the contest. "Cy" Williams hit his 15th home run of the season in the fifth, scoring Sands ahead of him. Mogan, Russell and Traynor also made circuit drives.

RACES SUNDAY EXPECTED TO BE DRAWING CARD

Over Dozen Fast Entries for Opening Event

BY TAB

Racing will open in full blast Sunday afternoon at the new Port Arthur speedway, according to announcements made yesterday morning at the tracks by U. P. Broussard, provided no more rains are encountered.

An inspection of the tracks made yesterday morning by local track enthusiasts revealed that the speedway is in excellent condition. The water which covered the place during the cloudburst at Beaumont has practically completely dried up, and while there is still a little water standing in the cups of the two curves at the south and north ends of the course, it was indicated yesterday that three more days of sunshine, coupled with the work the management is having done on the place this week, will leave the spot in A-1 condition for opening day.

Yesterday, approximately 12 men, and several teams were busy on the course, dragging, scraping and placing it in condition for the first ground of the fast dirt track artists, some of whom have already arrived in Port Arthur.

Broussard, together with the contractor and several other men, inspected the course yesterday morning, and announced that races will be held Sunday afternoon if no more rain falls during this week. Mr. Broussard was very enthusiastic concerning the outlook for the speedway, and predicted a mammoth crowd for the opening occasion. Practice days at the track, he said, will also be a feature of the place, when it opens in full, and on those occasions, the fans will be admitted gratis to the big stand which has been erected on the south side of the course in the middle of the straightaway.

Several fast racers have already arrived in Port Arthur and are being overhauled preparatory to the opening event, which Manager Broussard indicated yesterday will probably have over a dozen entries.

"Some of the fastest humans that ever drove on a dirt track are expected down for the first race," Broussard declared, "and the reputation of these men for speed on the dirt track is well known over the state and in many other places where dirt track racing is popular."

John Mals has already shipped two cars to Port Arthur, and although no definite announcements have been made concerning who will drive them, it is understood here that Roy Huston, local track exponent, may handle one of the speed boats. A couple of fast vehicles from Orange including a Mercer and an Essex, will probably take positions at the start of the big event on the speedway.

Concessions at the race track have already been disposed of, some of them going to Beaumont while Port Arthur got its share too.

BEAUMONT GETS FIRST PLACE IN TEXAS LEAGUE

Swamp Steers for Second Win of Series

Special to The News.
DALLAS, Texas, May 23.—Skipper Stump Edgington's proteges joined on the Dallas Steers here yesterday with all four and routed the Islanders from the first rung of the baseball ladder when they won the game, 6 to 4. The victory puts the Steers in first place in the Texas League.

Choate, who was nipped in the early frame, cost Dallas the game, and while the Islanders were playing an astringent exhibition, the Steers were being swamped. The score:

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS ON STREETS TO BE PAVED
Some property owners have refused to sign paving contracts, resulting in the paving being omitted fronting their property and have later decided to sign the contract, requiring a return of the paving organization to complete the omitted portion of the street at an increased expense to the contractor.

In view of the above fact, it will be necessary for property owners to sign contracts before paving operations are commenced in front of their property, or pay an extra charge to the contractor for returning to fill in omitted spots, should they decide to sign after paving is started in front of their property.

BACK OF THE LEAGUE

What More Sunday,
Startling Claim

"big business, big politics, and big churchmen to force on a people a league that shall hold the world together is an attempt of Satan to overthrow the Kingdom of God."

"This World War, the great famine that has come since, the pestilence of Spanish influenza that swept the earth, the revolutions that are now on and have been on for some time in various parts of the earth, all mark the activities of the Lord in overthrowing Satan's empire," the speaker declared.

"All conditions point to a great climax of trouble among the nations of the earth within the next few years. This means the climax of God's vengeance against Satan's empire, in which it will be completely overthrown and destroyed and the new heaven and the new earth will then begin," Isaac said.

"The reign of Christ will continue," he said, "until all the enemies of man are destroyed, the last enemy being death."

The Apostle Peter plainly says that the purpose of the Lord's reign is to restore all things."

In opening his address, Isaac set forth the biblical account of man's fall when tempted by the Devil in the Garden of Eden, traced the war in heaven, which resulted in Lucifer and his hosts being thrown out by Jehovah, and the appellations of "Devil," "Satan," "Dragon," and "Serpent" being given to the fallen archangel.

"Satan is the god of this world, and 'world' here means the commercial, political, social and ecclesiastical organizations of men," Isaac said. "Almost all observe that an unseen evil power influences the affairs of men, causing selfishness, lying, fraud, deceit, cheating, stealing, all kinds of immorality, murder, wars, famine, pestilence, revolution and other similar things," he said.

A daughter, Anna, Mrs. Langan said, went to the father's shop to ask for money. She returned home to say she had been beaten and thrown out. Mrs. Langan said she then went to the shop with her son, William, only to suffer the same fate.

Police said Mrs. Langan shot her husband with a pistol he found in his shop. She dashed to the street screaming: "I didn't mean to do it. With all his faults, I loved him. Poor John."

Edna's Flapperism Driving Him Crazy, Grandfather Says

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 22.—"She drives her poor mother crazy by her flapper antics and her staying out late at night. She'll do the same for me if the law doesn't take a hand."

Such was the testimony offered in a faltering voice by Chris Bruegger, 50, as he appeared on the witness stand in district court against his granddaughter, Edna Leslie, 19. She was charged with vagrancy on the complaint of her grandfather in his effort to have the authorities correct her conduct.

"Oh, my grandmother is too old fashioned for me," snapped the girl in reply. "He thinks because a girl is having a good time she ought to be arrested."

Judge Page continued the case for week 4 permit further investigation. The girl was released on her grandfather's bond. The grandfather had testified that his daughter, Maryann Leslie, the girl's mother, was confined in a sanatorium since last winter because of her worry over the girl's conduct.

READ THIS

The other day a lady attracted by our beautiful window display came into our store and after a careful inspection of the Aluminum asked the usual question: "Will it stand up for 20 years?" We showed her the 20-year guarantee stamped upon each piece. And we also showed her that in case she was not satisfied all that was necessary was to bring it back to us or send it to the factory, and as a FURTHER TEST, Mr. Scott, placed a delicate 2-quart Aluminum sauce pan on the floor and stood upon it. Mr. Scott weighs more than 200 pounds. When he stepped off the sauce pan it was in just as good condition as before the test. The lady was satisfied. You too, can see this test with your own eyes. Before the doors open tomorrow morning a demonstrator will place his weight upon any piece of aluminum you select for him. YOU ARE THE JUDGE. Don't be bashful, ask for the test. We know what kind of quality this aluminum is composed of. See the test.

LONG GAS FIGHT OFFICIALLY ENDS

Council Resolution Accepts Compromise Terms

The gas rate controversy is wiped off the city's slate. Resolutions passed by the city commission Monday afternoon which officially bind the city to the terms of a compromise reached Saturday at a conference between city officials and officials of the People's Gas company, resulting in making the $2.25 gas rate effective since May 19.

Service regulations and schedules accepted in the first resolution provide that the $2.25 gas rate applies, where in deposit of $10 is made by consumers with the People's Gas company. This is known as "Rate D." For consumers who do not comply with the terms of Rate D, a schedule known as "Rate A," allowing the company to charge a $2.70 rate when bills are paid before the tenth, and $3, if bills are paid after that date.

Reserve Tax Valuation

Provision for determining the amount of taxes to be levied upon the gas company's property from the findings of Burns and McDonald, appraisal engineers, is made in the second resolution passed by the commission Monday afternoon. This resolution also provides that the gas company's valuation for 1932 shall be revised to conform to the appraisal engineers' findings.

Last year the gas company's valuations were about $214,000 and the engineers found the valuations to be $241,000, a difference of $13,000. Vernon J. Wisner, city attorney said today. Credit for taxes paid on the $13,000 excess by the gas company in 1932 will be given on the 1933 payments, according to the terms of the resolution.

Among the points in the understanding reached Saturday are:

1. On April bills the company will allow to all consumers with deposits of one and a half times the average bill a rebate in excess of the $2.25 rate.
2. Return Impounded Funds. All funds impounded by the federal court in injunction proceedings will revert to the gas company.
3. Adjustment of the gas company's taxes in line with those paid by other public service corporations in Port Arthur.
4. Amendment of the city's ordinance No. 265, Section 5, to conform to the minimum charge of $2 per month per meter, and the deposit of one and a half times the average monthly bill, with $10 the minimum deposit, set forth by the gas company in its schedule of rates and regulations.

In the absence of Mayor J. P. Logan who was in Beaumont attending the hearing on the Neches bridge construction before the county commissioners court, the resolutions settling the gas controversy were signed by Commissioners Wade and Wiley.

Provision also was made in one of the resolutions for passage of other resolutions and ordinances that may in the opinion of the commission be necessary to carry into effect the rate settlement.

'Q' VESSEL FOR SABINE DELAYED

Health Officer Here Denies Storm Danger

Removal of a vessel to Sabine to serve as a quarantine detention barracks is again delayed.

This time it is on account of informal advice to the United States surgeon general's department that it is dangerous to anchor a vessel at Sabine because of the storms, a wire to Dr. T. J. Liddell, U. S. public health surgeon, in charge of the Sabine district, advised today.

"Investigate the storm report, and report if true," the telegram to Dr. Liddell stated.

Directions Given

On the other hand, Dr. Liddell is further instructed in the telegram from the department at Washington to communicate with R. L. Weems, United States shipping board agent at Galveston, if it is found safe to anchor at Sabine and arrange details of towing the steamship Lake Elmsdale from the Orange barge to the anchorage at Sabine.

"I've taken up the storm question with Carson, the weather bureau observer here, and I feel it will be safe enough to anchor the Lake Elmsdale at Sabine," Dr. Liddell said. "It would be just as unsafe to build a house in Port Arthur on account of storms as to anchor the ship at Sabine, it seems to me," he said.

No Storm Danger

"We are given ample warning of approaching storms, and it would be an easy matter to have the Lake Elmsdale towed up the canal should a storm ever start moving in this section," Dr. Liddell pointed out. The delay in getting the vessel to Sabine on account of the storm investigation will not be long, Dr. Liddell said.

LEGION CRITIC REMOVED

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., May 22.—The removal of George C. Wilson as head of the state agricultural college will be asked, according to Leon Brown, state adjutant of the American Legion here today. Wilson is alleged to have made disparaging statements regarding the legion at a public meeting at Atoka last year.

'LITTLE TYCOON' DRAWS CROWD

High Music Class Presents Favorite Operetta

Before an audience that filled Franklin school auditorium, members of the high school music classes, under the direction of Miss Hortense Smith, music director in the city schools, presented the operetta, "Little Tycoon," Monday night.

Accompaniments for the operetta were given by the high school orchestra, Miss Smith conducting during the acts, and Frank W. Kern, orchestra instructor in the schools, conducting the selections played between the acts.

The choruses were sung with considerable assurance, and the solos, practically all of which were handled by Miss Lucille Price, playing the part of Violet Knickerbocker, the leading lady, were done exceptionally well. Miss Price particularly handled her part well, bringing to both her singing and acting naturalness and finish above the average in amateurs.

Generous applause was given the players, and numbers in the audience were heard praising the production. The "Little Tycoon" was first scheduled for performance last Friday night, but due to the heavy rain early in the day, it was postponed until last night.

SAUNDERS FACES AN INJUNCTION

P.-W. Head to Confer With Financiers

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 22.—Clarance Saunders' creditors prepared today to begin injunction proceedings against the head of the Piggly Wiggly stores to force payment of the money borrowed from them to fight Wall Street.

Representatives of "pool interests" from Nashville arrived here with instructions to effect a settlement with Saunders, or institute the injunction proceedings. The Piggly Wiggly head and his attorneys were to confer with the financiers today.

Attorney F. A. Berry, Nashville, representing a large group of Saunders' creditors, said that on the outcome of this meeting with Saunders would depend any action that might be taken.

W. J. Collier, 82, Dies At Daughter's Home

Goldstone to Be Brought Back to Beaumont

W. J. Collier, 82 years, died at 2 o'clock this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. G. Wingler, 1532 Fifth street, after a short illness. Collier had made his home here with relatives for the past five years, coming to this city from Mount Hope, Kansas.

Collier was well known in the Odd Fellows organization here, having been a member of the order for a number of years, and members of the fraternity have charge of the funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Grammer funeral chapel, Rev. William Oeschger, pastor of the First Christian church, of this city, and Rev. Holden of Beaumont Christian church, officiating.

The body will be shipped Wednesday to Mount Hope, Kansas, under the direction of J. E. Grammer, undertaker, where burial will be made in the family burial ground. Surviving the deceased are a son, F. H. Collier, 820 Orange avenue, a daughter, Mrs. C. G. Wingler, 1532 Fifth street, both of this city; a son in Colwick, Texas; 13 grand children, and six great-grand children.

BEAUMONT, Texas, May 22.—Archie Goldstone, alleged forger and master criminal, who escaped from the Jefferson county jail, Monday night one week ago, was arrested Monday night in Little Rock, Arkansas, by the Little Rock police department, on information furnished the department by Bob Ellis, superintendent of the local bureau of identification. Goldstone, it was reported at headquarters here this morning, will be returned here at once.

The man under arrest in Little Rock was waiting trial on indictments charging seven different cases of alleged forgery by alteration, and one of felony theft, according to the authorities, at the time of his escape. # TENANTS HOOT AS HOMES SOLD

U. S. Built Town of 45 Homes Goes to Speculators

GLOUCESTER, N. J., May 22.—Brooklawn, the government built town of 451 cosy dwellings and business houses is in the hands of real estate speculators today.

The little town was sold at auction. Prices soared so that only about 10 per cent of the tenants occupying the houses were able to buy their own homes.

Tenants had made plans to purchase their dwellings. They attended the sale in a body, wearing white cards so as to avoid competition among themselves.

The first house sold was bought by its occupant, and the spectators cheered. The feeling of the crowd changed rapidly thereafter, for the prices, which began high, rapidly mounted.

Tenants hooted and jeered as their homes were snatched up by real estate dealers. No house went for less than $2,500, while some went as high as $6,400.

When the sale ended, the entire village had been auctioned for $1,709,000. It cost the government a little more than $3,000,000 to construct Brooklawn during the war.

A similar amount is to be raised by contributions among the members of the Mexican colony, making a total of $5,000 for the school building proposed by the Mexican consul.

Additional money to foster the teaching of vocational subjects as well as a regular schooling course, will also be sought, it is understood.

SAVING THE FIBER

Congressman Albert Johnson of Washington is chairman of the house committee on immigration. This is his warning: "The United States no longer is and will not be an asylum for the people of the world. Wholesale migrations of people to the United States are ended for all time. There are those who see in this immigration question a fight between capital and labor. Let me say that the president doesn't see it in that light at all. The fight is for the future of the United States. The fight is for posterity here and not for posterity in Constantinople or anywhere else. The come back in two years' time from 5,000,000 unemployed in the United States to work for everybody who will work is remarkable. It is a little more than normalcy. Restriction of immigration has played a full part of it; both capital and labor are winners but the greatest gainer is the United States of America. Our fiber is being saved. We are cleaning house."

Congressman Johnson asserted that the present three per cent restrictive immigration law would be further restricted by going back to the 1890 census as a basis and limiting the percentage to two per cent. This is why Mexicans and negroes are being taken north by the agents of the great manufacturers. Congressman Johnson knows whereof he speaks. National law makers keep their ear to the ground. They know who do the voting. They know that neither the captains of industry nor the agents of the big shipping companies are of much importance on election day.

TWO GROUPS OF COUNTIES

Undisputable facts are disclosed by the records according to Gus Reininger of Comal, would show that there are two groups of counties in the state, namely the low percentage assessed counties and the high percentage assessed counties.

The low percentage assessed counties are composed of a group of 95 which have only increased their assessment 101 per cent over their assessment of 1906, the year prior to the enactment of the so-called full rendition law.

The high percentage assessed counties, which group consists of 159 counties, have for the same period increased their assessment 232 per cent.

This is the constitutional requirement, "Taxation shall be equal and uniform."

Let those who make the laws answer. Let those who pay the taxes listen. The people are the masters.

They make and unmake laws. They make and unmake public servants. Why not comply with the constitutional requirement?

"Taxation shall be equal and uniform."

Soviet Russia is said to have been inflamed by the recent British note. John Bull doesn't care. He will continue to walk in the middle of the road and care for his own. It is a way he has.

ON HIS WAY

Governor Prues of Minnesota resigned his office to become Senator Prues and to take the late Knute Nelson's seat in the American senate. Knute Nelson was an alien. He was of the Scandinavian race. Prues is an alien. He is of the Scandinavian race. Knute Nelson won and held a high place among American statesmen.

Prues for years was his private secretary. Nelson trained him. Prues became governor of Minnesota. He has two terms to his credit and another in sight. Knowing that death was near Knute Nelson whispered to his lieutenant that Prues had the stuff in him necessary for a real American law maker.

Then came the demand on the part of the people for Prues to resign as governor and to go to Washington as the successor of their old chief. Nelson had character as well as distinguished ability. Prues has character. He has been a servant of the people. He was trained by a master and some day he may rank with the leading statesmen of America.

Opportunity has something to do with the making of a man.

GOLD

Herbert Hoover says that the gold reserves of the country have increased from $2,000,000,000 to $3,000,000,000 since 1920 and that this accumulation might be used to produce an inflation of credit and currency which would mean the greatest era of speculation and inflation in our country. Then it is possible for too much gold to bring disaster upon a nation. This is the logic of the Hoover argument. Is it possible that the United States is poverty stricken because it has captured half the gold supply of the world?

HAVANA IS WET

American steamship companies are boycotting Vera Cruz. They refuse to permit their ships to stop at that port and all because the union port workers boycotted the American ships that refused to employ their members. There is not much consolation in this for wet passengers who are making reservations on the Ward and other liners for the reason that the supreme court decided that all ships must be dry within the three mile limit. It is possible for the southern liners to obey this decree and then restock at Vera Cruz. Now Havana will get the wet business.

WET AND DRY

New Jersey democrats swept all before them in recent local elections and captured all the local pie. New Jersey has a wet senator who is a democrat and a wet senator who is a republican. New Jersey has a governor who is a total abstainer and who insists that the Volstead act should be revised.

There are all kinds of democrats. Down here in Texas there are dry democrats who are not total abstainers; wet democrats who are total abstainers; there are democrats, at least one democrat, who would imprison a man for 99 years for making bogus whiskey.

There are democrats who have enacted a law that provides that a democrat office holder who gets intoxicated shall be automatically removed from office and there are democratic office holders who would take a bracer without batting an eye, take it deep and often and never show the least sign of intoxication.

John Barleycorn is on the toboggan in Texas. Everytime he turns around he is facing the main entrance to the penitentiary with the gates ever swinging inward.

Herbert Hoover advises the people to buy their coal now. He says that if the public stocks its coal between now and September it will relieve the fall and winter rail traffic. Herbert Hoover is a wise man but he should be told there are millions of Americans who buy coal when they need it and then carry it in sacks. He should invade the tenement districts of American cities in winter time.

LETTER FROM LESLIE PRESCOTT TO LESLIE PRESCOTT. CARE OF THE SECRET DRAWER

I sometimes wonder if the gay little Marquise whose love letters used to lie in this receptacle, ever found one that made her very sad. Some way the ones that I place here seem only to record an unhappiness of some kind.

I can write my joys and my pleasures to my friends, but it is only to you, Leslie Prescott, that I may tell the things that bother me, that grieve me.

For you see I have perhaps a peculiar idea that no woman should find fault with her husband to any other person. Not even to her mother should she voice the slightest criticism of him unless things become so bad that she finds she cannot live with him any more.

Dear old Jack has not reached that place by many a mile but it does take a long time to get to the place of understanding. I love him much and I know that he loves me, but love is a jealous little god and he just won't be made to go in with the other Ladies and Gentlemen. He wants it all or nothing.

When Jack is away from me, he is nothing else but perfect and I dream of him as he is at times when he comes in with that gay laugh of his and waltzes me around the room and kisses me on my eyes, my lips and my throat and tells me I am the sweetest thing he has ever known.

I always think he is going to be like this when he comes home and I am so disappointed when he comes in looking glum and unhappy.

I know that things have gone wrong at the office and I don't dare ask him about it because I know he doesn't want me to talk to him about his business.

I wonder why it is that men do not like to talk over their business with their wives. No one would be so interested as a man's wife would be in his business and yet they will tell intimate details of their business and their life to some other woman and talk shop by the hour with their stenographers and their secretaries.

Jack did not look cross at all the other night when Mabel Locke congratulated him on his latest advertising campaign which is now spread all over the papers and magazines of the country. The first night I saw it, I was so happy about it and tried to tell him so.

But he said impatiently, "Oh, let's don't talk about it. I'm so tired. I never want to hear of the thing again." It's done for. I start some thing new tomorrow.

Some way the every day cares and responsibilities of married life push all the sentiment out of it. Jack thinks I am awfully sentimental but to me a man or woman without sentiment is a man or woman without an ideal—without sympathy—without soul and I would almost give up Jack's love rather than the sentimental part of my nature. It makes me able to appreciate to the fullest all that his love brings into my life.

This isn't such an unhappy letter after all. I started to write something very different and yet I don't know whether it is your influence, dear little Marquise, but I can only think just now of my great big splendid husband who, in spite of his lapses and idiosyncrasies, little faults and foibles, has made me happier than I have ever been before. Here he comes.

THE EVILS OF PUBLICITY

In the late Wm. De Mille production, "The World's Applause," the central idea is the price of publicity.

Colorful, exotic Bebe Daniels is seen in the role of Germaine D'Allys, a successful artist of the stage whose high place has been largely due to her insatiable search for publicity.

Lewis Stone, finished stage and screen artist, is seen as John Elliott, a dramatic producer who becomes enmeshed in emotional situations of compelling force with his sister, played by Kathryn Williams, allows jealousy of her artist husband to drag them all into a quagmire of scandal.

THRILLER SCIENCE ENDORSED

An extraordinary feature, the result of a camera expedition through the wilds of the dark continent, Africa, made by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson, afford some of the most fascinating and instructive animal shots that have been brought to the screen in "Trailing African Wild Animals," which is now running at the Pearce theater.

Mural Decoration

By BERTON BRADLEY
"Bright Wallpaper given pop and new to a home and to those in it"—Lacy Taylor in the National Wallpaper Manufacturers' Association.
Peter Jones was peaceful, Peter Jones was mild.
He never did a single thing unusual or wild.
They "rode him" at the office, his good wife ruled his home.
No thought or dream rebellious had ever filled his dome.
The crowd forever jostled him, the rough guys trampled on him.
He meekly took the many was that fortune wished upon him.
A stolid sort of character, who talked in meek tones.
A humble individual, was Mr. Peter Jones.

The paperhanger came one day, and in the entrance hall

Of Peter Jones' domicile he posted on the wall
Some brilliant yellow paper—the effect of which was such
That when out hero saw it he was pepped up pretty much.
He told his wife the riot act, he filled her heart with fear.
He belittled in a raucous voice, "By Heck, I'm master here!"
And next day at the office, quite reversed all his ways.
He walked in on the manager and bluffed him for a raise!

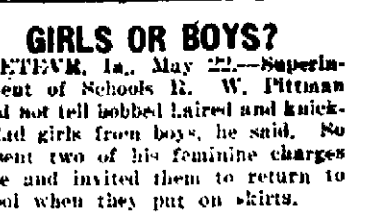

That brilliant yellow paper made the other rooms seem dim.
So Peter ordered paper which had color light and vim.
With scarlet and with purple, with cardinal and pink
He papered all his domicile until it made you blink.
And as the paperhangers came and pasted up each roll,
Why, Peter grew more cocky and more arrogant of soul!

He's managing the business now, his emerald all has fled.
And you'll find his privy office papered brilliantly in red!

SOFT CREPES, COOL LINENS, AND CRISP ORGANDIES ARE FASHION'S LATE OFFERINGS

LET cool winds blow, and spring rains fall. June is in the offing and whether warm or cool, my lady of fashion must have complete her summer wardrobe of soft silky crepes, crisp organdies and cool linens.

Some of the smart new summer frocks for midsummer season are being shown in downtown shop windows. Those on display are chosen from among hundreds of beautiful models because they are typical of the mode.

One of the smartest cotton three-piece costumes seen for many a day was noticed recently. The skirt and box coat were of natural colored linen embroidered in Egyptian red moricized cotton in so intricate a design that it looked like an all-over embroidered fabric. The coat was bound in red grosgrain ribbon. The little overhouse was of finely tucked French voile, with much abbreviated sleeves. The skirt was a wrap-over model with one button fastening.

Of sweetheart blue was a gorgeous frock, charming as youth itself, with plaited ruffles and tucks, cream val lace and garlands and flying ends of blue moire ribbon, which was recently on display downtown.

The ever stunning mapple combination was shown to advantage in a frock of black crepe with jabot and insets of white lace. The skirt was laid in knife pleats. The cash was of black crepe, over gay cerise ribbon.

Printed crepe is holding its own this season. Such a frock of printed gray crepe, with spot design in blue, and the loveliest roses of beige val was seen the other day. The roses effectively concealed the elastic at the bottom of the skirt, which drew the fullness into a huddle. A bunch of red straw flowers on one shoulder was a graceful final touch.

Chiffon will also be worn extensively during the midsummer season, and the latest design, the smarter dress, a printed chiffon, showing gorgeous roses, splashed with black, and with green foliage on a white background makes a stunning frock. Black lace finishes the hem of the skirt, and black beads edge the wing-like panels. The sash is of black velvet.

For those who do not care for the ready-made frocks, shops are supplying lawn and organdie for the slight of hand, and for those who prefer the draped or clinging silhouette, voiles, ginghams and fine batistes for morning frocks—silk crepes of all sorts and tulle as light as crepes—and all the fabrics out of which the spring frocks are cut.

Valenciennes lace and other sorts of the narrow lace are used with old-time lavishness on frocks of lawn, voiles and organdies, and even on some crepes. The use of fine narrow lace has come back hand-in-hand with the art of fine tuckmaking.

Figured organdies are new and possess the crispness so devotedly to be washed in summer, and for this fact they promise to rival chiffon and lace. These organdies seem to steer clear of the wild figures that haunt the dreams of present designers, for the prevailing design is of the floral sort, printed in soft yet clear colors.

A LOVELY hospitality of Monday's social calendar had as hostess Miss Laurella Burnham who entertained at her home, 2017 Sixth street, with a charming miscellaneous shower in compliment to Miss Alice Hanchett, whose marriage to Mr. N. E. Cochran will be an event of the month of June.

The home was adorned throughout with dainty sweet peas and flowers, their beauty showing in clustered arrangements in flat bowls and vases. During the closing hour of the delightful hospitality, Miss Hanchett was presented with an attractively decorated basket, in which were concealed the gifts. Mrs. Arthur Beal and Miss Burnham presented the gifts to Miss Hanchett. A tempting ice course was served during the evening, and pretty favors of sweet pea corsages were presented the guests as souvenirs.

The personnel of this charming affair included members of the Stitches Club, among whom were Miss Alice Hanchett, Miss Mary Beal, Mrs. Arthur Beal and Little son, Charles Clayton Beal, Miss Lucille Hanchett, Mrs. H. Daily, Mrs. J. W. Carter, Miss Addie Dismukes, Mrs. Joe Gorman, Mrs. Wallace Follette, Mrs. Neal D. Rider, Miss Frances Hushong, and Miss Laurella Burnham.

MRS. T. J. PHILLIPS OF 823 Liberty avenue left Sunday evening for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blythe in Orange Cove, Calif. While in California, Mrs. Phillips will visit in San Francisco and Los Angeles before returning in August.

MISS LUCILLE BREAUX, entertained the Ever Happy Club Saturday evening at her home, 1009 Eighth street.

Games and sewing gave diversion during the evening preceding which a short business session was held. At the close of the evening a delicious ice course was served.

Those attending the meeting were Misses Rosemary Stiehl, Ada Vandergriff, Leona Rogers, Ursula Landry, Effie Moser, Eugenia Jakowicz, Clara Rogers, Lucille Breaux, and the following guests: Miss Katie Brittain, Mrs. N. H. Breaux, and Mrs. W. C. Kent.

Miss Rosemary Stiehl will be the club's hostess on June 2 at her home, 2510 Fourth street.

IRENE RICH

BY JACK JUNGMEYER

HOLLYWOOD, May 22.—A singularly striking woman, with two daughters almost shoulder high, so ingeniously placed with the regal gown of her current movie masterpiece as her youngsters with their dolls.

That's the way I first saw Irene Rich in person, at a home dinner given last evening by the young matron who has swept to screen stardom from the background of army post life on the impetuous of a girl-like nature.

"I feel so excited in this costume," she said frankly, twisting the long train, "that I didn't want to change it for a prosaic dinner dress." And I heartily agreed with the unspoiled children when they chirped, "Mamma, you look just beautiful."

That irrepressible naïveté, the capacity for "feeling excited" and simple things, I should say, is the secret of "Miss" Rich's steady progress from a $3 extra five years ago to leading roles with a number of foremost producers. This and the ability to focus varied experiences in her work.

She is "Miss" Rich since the time she came to the movies from matrimonial debacle to earn bread and butter in the Dismukes building, which was formerly known as Madame Jean's Beauty Shoppe.

MISS WILLA PLYANT PLEASINGLY entertained the Young Ladies' Missionary Society yesterday afternoon at her home on Stillwell boulevard.

The Bible Study was conducted by Miss Mildred Saxon, and during the business session the members discussed the sending of two delegates to the district missionary convention which convenes in Liberty next week. A social hour followed and a delicious ice course was served.

Those attending yesterday's session were Misses Thelma Campbell, Selma Mae Burt, Pearl McNeill, Mildred Mae Vail, Edith Saxon, Alice Winn, Blanche McDowell, Daisy Edwards, Katharine Wall and Willa Plyant, and Miss J. W. Barron, sponsor.

CAPTAIN AND MRS. E. R. HAIN provided a delightful host and hostess at a tea on board the U. S. steamer Bache recently.

Delicious refreshments were served, with Mrs. Jones presiding at the tea and Mrs. Hain at the coffee table. While refreshments were being served the guests were entertained with a radio concert.

The guests included Capt. and Mrs. Horden and children, from the U. S. S. Hydrographer, Lieut. and Mrs. Jones, Lieut. and Mrs. Clark, Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas, Chief Engineer Conover, Mr. Wollack, Mrs. Kerr and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Nevins.

THE RECEPTION AT THE Country Club tomorrow evening for the members of the American Legion and eligible members, with the American Legion Auxiliary as hostess will be a delightful event.

Invitations for the affair have been posted, and members of the Legion and Auxiliary are permitted to invite eligible members for either organization.

All are requested to assemble at the American Legion club rooms on Lake Shore drive, and those having automobiles who wish to assist in getting the guests to the Country Club are requested to meet at the clubrooms at 7:30 o'clock.

THE W. B. A. OF THE MACCABEES will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the W. O. W. hall. A number of important business matters will be discussed on account of having no meeting last month. It is hoped that all members of the Maccabees will be present.

THE WORKERS' CONFERENCE will be held tomorrow night at the First Christian church at 7:30 o'clock. On account of the important matters pertaining to the Sunday school to be discussed, all teachers and officers are especially urged to be present.

During the interview over steak and coffee, she veered the talk from the usual bromide shop chatter into paths of refreshing novelty. Chiefly it was in retrospect of the time she had migrated from Buffalo with her parents to the semi-frontier of an Idaho mining camp.

"For mother," she said, "the change was terrible. For me the blink of romance, I used to ride five miles to the nearest town to get provisions, fearfully excited at being allowed to carry a pistol.

"Once I thought I'd have to use it when a rough man stopped me on a lonely trail, saying, 'Wait, miss. I want a good look at you—I haven't seen a pretty woman in years.'

"I saw he meant no harm, so I let him look, posing a little under the compliment. I'm afraid. He gazed his fill, very reverently, with tears in his eyes; a poor old prospector hungry for companionship.

"No screen fan compliment has ever affected me so much."

SHIP AGROUND; ALL ARE SAVED

Hits Cape Reels Rock of Newfoundland

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., May 22.—The Canadian Pacific steamer Margate, formerly the Corsican, of the Allan Line, is aground today off Cape Freels, with only her bridge, funnel, and masts showing. All the passengers and crew, numbering 430 persons, were gotten away to shore safely yesterday.

The Margate, a vessel of 3,171 tons, was the first big ship to leave Montreal this spring, and had passed safely through the straits and ice fields on her way to Liverpool when she struck her way to the rock.

A large number of Americans were on board. The list included John Henderson, Kansas City, Mo.

The Margate ran into a rock and stove a hole below the water line yesterday afternoon, shortly before sundown.

Captain Lewis, in an effort to save the passengers, ordered full speed ahead for a narrow stretch of sandy beach which lay a few miles away. The hole torn in the vessel's side was so great, however, that she became waterlogged and sank in seven fathoms.

across the Neches river, provided for in the official call for the $2,000,000 bond election.

But there was no harmony. Grievances were many and they were being continually aired. Everyone present had a chance to talk and he took advantage of it.

The Port Arthur delegation strenuously objected to the policy of Beaumont representatives to "erect the Neches bridge down our throats regardless of roads."

Suggestions for a solution of the present tangle included that of floating a new county bond issue of approximately $200,000 to cover appropriations now lacking, that of a financial audit of the bond issue funds and declaring a new apportionment taking into consideration money already spent, that of adhering to the motion adopted by the commissioners' court to apportion the bond money by precincts according to taxable valuations. All of these came in for some consideration but were not worthy of outright adoption.

At no time would the hearing actually even consider Beaumont's many times reiterated "legal right" to use any part or all of the bond money for construction of the Neches bridge.

It was this inept demand from Beaumont that caused rejection of each proposal. Should a new bond issue be floated, the county at large objected to Beaumont's claim that the bridge apportionment should be set aside first, and then the remaining funds distributed for road work. Should an audit be made and a new deal be declared, the county at large objected to paying out for the bridge, regardless of road projects.

And no amount of argument that the bridge is a county proposition could sway another delegation over toward the way of thinking of the Beaumonts.

The deciding factor, at adjournment of the hearing, proved to be the request for full and complete information regarding order of the county engineer's court to bond money on account of all other information relating to the present situation from the time of passage of the bond issue itself.

This request was included in a letter of protest against "altering or eliminating any part of the announced road program for Precinct No. 2," filed with the court by Leroy G. Stump, general manager of the Port Arthur Chamber of Commerce.

It was primarily for this purpose that the suggestion regarding naming of Chambers of Commerce committees was adhered to and action left open for next Monday.

Letter of Protest

The Port Arthur letter of protest was over the signature of the Chamber of Commerce. It said in part:

"We protest against any proposed utilization of the proceeds of the recently voted two million dollar road bond issue which would reduce or restrict the road building program as announced for Precinct No. 2 whether such utilization should be for the extension of roads in other precincts of the county or for payment of part cost on the proposed bridge over the Neches river at Beaumont.

"The voters of Precinct No. 2 voted for the road bond issue with the most well-defined concept as to the benefits Precinct No. 2 was to receive under the program.

"The voters of the precinct were then and are now positive that the program as outlined was not greater than could be possible and practicable under an equitable and just distribution of the bond fund on a pro rata basis, and any attempt to alter or eliminate any item announced for Precinct 2 would unquestionably result in a vigorous and concerted opposition which might greatly delay all further road building in the county.

"In addition to a protest against such diversion, we wish to call your attention to the fact that the public at large is very fully informed as to the present real plans for bridging the Neches river and also as to the status of the various road funds of the county."

Unable to Get Minutes

In an effort to acquaint interested citizens with the situation, Commissioner Hughes of Precinct No. 2 promised this organization that he would furnish the good roads committee with certified copies of extracts from the minutes of the county commissioners' court so this organization could gain a comprehensive idea of the steps taken thus far and their legal effect. Thus far Mr. Hughes informs us he has been unable to secure the copy of the minutes he desires and we are very far, therefore, from being fully advised as to the road fund status."

He dwelt at length on the bridge construction, presenting a comparison with the bridge at Port Arthur which cost about $125,000, while Beaumont planned to spend $375,000 on their bridge. He predicted to be unable to see why Beaumont should have such an expensive structure at the expense of roads in other parts of the county.

At this juncture, County Engineer Love gave statistics on the proposed bridge cost, stating the bridge was designed to carry heavy traffic but that it was so designed because the federal government required it in order to secure the federal aid on the project.

Stump's insinuation that the "heavy construction" intended for future switching tracks and industrial facilities for Beaumont on the east side of the river and should be paid for by those interests which would benefit thereby, went unchallenged.

County Engineer J. E. Johnson was present from Orange county. At Judge Johnson's request, he informed the gathering that Orange county will build the road connecting with the Neches river bridge on the best approach, whether the bridge was built or not. He stated contract for the remaining five miles of concrete road, bringing it to within three-quarters of a mile to the river would be let on June 11, providing satisfactory bids were received.

Captain W. C. Terrell of Beaumont, probably the largest taxpayer in the county, made a short talk favoring the bridge. He concluded by saying, "If this bridge is not built, I feel sorry for Beaumont, for Jefferson county and for this court," and he shook a finger trembling with age and vigor at the members of the court.

At Times Woman Spends Too Little For Clothes

NEW YORK, May 22.—How much should a woman spend for clothes?

Percy Strauss, a clothier, told all about it Thursday. His contention is that a woman often does not know how to buy, and spends too much for clothes in proportion to the benefits she derives from them. Then, too, she may not be spending as much as her income warrants. If the latter be the case, friend husband soon will be told about it.

It was learned, through Mr. Strauss' inquiries, that $100 a year is the least a woman can spend on clothing, while the minimum amount on which a woman can maintain a smart appearance is placed at $200. Beyond that extent there are different degrees of luxury and refinement.

Under the budget of $100 a year, a woman should spend $48 for outer garments, $21.30 for undergarments, hats should cost $5.58, shoes $15.65, miscellaneous bits of wearing apparel $9.44.

Those articles of clothing, which under normal conditions should last two seasons, are figured at one-half their cost in these budgets.

Under a budget of $200 a year the young business woman is advised by Mr. Strauss to spend $108.52 for outer garments, $26.89 for undergarments, $12.46 for hats, $20.83 for shoes and $21.29 for accessories and miscellaneous articles.

If the young business woman has an income of $700, she should spend on clothes, $100; of $900, $132; of $700, $151; of $900, $178; of $900, $198; of $1,000, $230; of $1,200, $258; of $1,500, $275; of $2,000 $500.

The business woman with $1,500 to spend on clothing is advised to allocate her expenditures as follows: $911.40 for outer garments; for undergarments $215.89; hats $102; shoes $71.92; accessories and miscellaneous, $196.17.

Cy Williams Looms Up As Likely New Circuit Clout King

Face for Honors, Off With Bang, Brings Query On Standing of Babe Ruth, Rogers Hornsby, and Others of Homer Fame

BY BILLY EXANS

Is 1923 to see a new home-run king crowned? Is Rogers Hornsby, the man who deliriously Babe Ruth, destined to hold his laurels only one short year?

Fred Williams, better known as Cy, who favors in the outfield for the lowly Phillies, is the latest athlete to aspire to the big title.

Babe Ruth in setting his mark of 50 home runs in 1921 averaged a home run in 1921 after than every third game. But in itself is a most remarkable feat. I doubt if it is ever equaled.

Williams, however, is hot on the trail of the Ruth record, and in the first 21 games played he is outdoing the remarkable performance of the Yankee star.

Thirteen home runs in 22 games is a record long up by Williams during the first three weeks of play. In compiling his first dozen home runs, Williams on May 11, in a game with the St. Louis Cardinals, jumped his mark from nine clouts out to three home runs in 12 games at bat. In so doing he tied a modern record for home runs in a major league game, first made by Cy Williams of the St. Louis Browns and later equaled by Walter Pate of the Phillies. On May 12 Williams reached the so-called unky 13.

What's in a name? Nothing, perhaps, yet it is rather singular that Cy Williams of the Phillies and Kew Williams of the Browns should now be showing the way in the two leagues as far as home-run hitting is concerned.

While always a hard hitter it was until last season that Williams was to win fame as a fence-buster. In 1922 he ranked second to Knickerbocker, who led both major leagues with 42 homers. Williams hit 26.

Williams has a rather peculiar swing at the plate, and in National League play he is known as a dead fielder. Opposing teams try him in much the same manner as American League clubs figure him.

The first baseman swings over to a foul line, the second baseman over to his left, almost to the first baseman usually plays. Shortstop is just to the right of the first baseman, while the third baseman plays what is about the natural position for the shortstop.

In the field, Williams is a dead fielder. Opposing teams try him in much the same manner as American League clubs figure him.

The pitchers work with the defense by keeping their stuff on the side, thereby hoping to force Williams to hit in accordance with the left of the defense.

At the Phillies park Williams will receive much assistance in his home runs by a very short right fielder. Fly balls that would be out in many parks go for homers at Philadelphia.

Williams keeps up his slugging in the home. His chance to set a new home-run record depends entirely on what he will be able to accomplish on foreign soil.

PURCHASE 'LEFTY'

'Lefty' Davenport, pitcher from Chicago Americans, has been purchased by the New Haven Eastern league club.

The wires carried that short season the other day which announced the passing of Davenport to the American League ranks.

Processing terrific speed and a fine right ball, Davenport gave great trouble when he was secured by the Sox, direct from a western league.

For three years Davenport has been carried by Chicago in the hope that he would arrive, but it seems in vain. It is questionable if any player in the American League is as much stuff as Davenport, but avoids him nothing due to lack of speed.

Inability to get the ball over has been the one fault that has kept Davenport in the backroom. He does regular work in the minors will be able him to overcome the fault.

TABOO MONOPOLY

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., May 22.—Major league baseball has no monopoly on hit games.

A minor league — hardly more than a racket — has risen to tell 'em to get off.

Sammy Young, star batter of the Bloomington Three-I League club, pushed his way into Slabtown's line of fame along with Addie Joss, Young and Charlie Robertson.

He recently twirled a perfect game in the Rockford team, at Rockford, Ill. None of the 27 batters who faced him in the nine frames could get a hit.

After he signed with the Bloomington team, Young pitched two other perfect games. Then ill health affected his work. But he appears to be regaining his former strength effectiveness.

Young's remarkable performance has been duplicated by any other league player in the national time's annals.

Young came here from James H. Young, Decatur, Ill. He is a baseball hero now, spending much time with the college in his league duties permit.

THEY FOUND THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

Two "come-backs" in action and repose: Jess Willard, boxer (left), and Babe Adams, baseball pitcher.

Mr. Adams confided that he began to, that trip back from Kansas City to Pittsburgh.

Mr. Adams admitted that the average life of a baseball pitcher is about five years. And he has been going 19 years.

"Just chance," he said, "None of this fountain of youth stuff."

They asked me a question, "Did you see me lick Jack Johnson in 1915?" asked Mr. Willard, expanding his 33-inch chest.

"Did you see me lick Detroit in 1909?" asked Mr. Adams, tossing his movie-star hair.

"Oh, no," I said, on each occasion opening the door to make a quick getaway, "I belong to the present generation."

According to the law of averages, 95 victories in a season are usually sufficient to enable a team to win a major league pennant. For in a schedule of 154 games, it gives a club a percentage of .618 which as a rule is enough to lead the rest of the field, providing it is at all evenly balanced.

Of course in a class where two clubs far exceed the other entries the above doesn't always hold true, as was evidenced back in 1915 when the Detroit Tigers, though they turned in an even 100 triumphs, were forced to be content with second place, the Boston Red Sox copping the flag with 101 victories. This is no doubt the only occasion in the history of the game, however, where in a team teaching the century figure in games won failed to annex the gonfalon.

Oddly enough, the Tigers hold the record of having won the pennant with the lowest percentage ever compiled, turning the trick in 1908 with 90 games won and 63 lost, a mark of .588. That was the year in which the four western clubs in the American League were in the thick of the pennant fight right up until the last two weeks of the campaign.

In the National circuit, the Phillies claim honor to the same sort of feat, their 90 victories and 62 defeats in 1915 giving them a percentage of .592. Incidentally, this was the only time a team in the older loop has captured the flag with a mark below .600 in the past 20 years, the fustian in the present body not being so close as those which have characterized the ones in the American.

To the Chicago Cubs goes the honor of having won the most games in a season, the 1906 outfit grabbing 116 titles for the remarkable percentage of .763. In the American League, the Red Sox hold the best record with 105 triumphs and but 47 whippings in 1912 for an average of .691.

NO RECORD

When is a base hit so recorded in the batting averages?

Ball players as a rule do not advocate many changes in the playing rules. Base hits, however, are desert to every diamond athlete.

As a result a majority of the big league players favor a change in a certain rule that has a direct bearing on the merry old base hit. For example:

If two teams play four innings and the umpire is finally forced to call the game, due to rain or some other reason, all the hits and runs, as well as other records made in the game, are thrown into the discard.

The only reason for such action is based on the theory that the four innings played do not constitute a ball game.

Chronic Diseases

My sorrow in the treatment of Chronic Diseases is due to the fact that I never attempt treatment unless I can locate the cause and remove it, thereby practically eliminating all doubts and guess work. For this reason I cure almost every case I treat, therefore, if you are suffering with a chronic disease trouble it with my plan to cure and get my advice. If I cannot I will tell you.

I CURE FILLS WITHOUT PAIN OR CUTTING I also treat successfully Stomach, Kidney, Bladder, Blood and other Chronic Diseases.

SLUGGERS LOSE FIRST GAME OF SEASON 6 TO 1

Invas Saratoga Sunday and Play Fast Club

Special to The News.

SARATOGA, Texas, May 22.—The Port Arthur Sluggers lost the second game of the season here Sunday when the fast Saratoga ball nine took them into camp, 6 to 1. It was one of the closest, and hardest played games witnessed here, despite the finishing touch the locals placed on the old pill in the final rounds of the contest.

The Port Arthur boys put up a sturdy resistance, and probably lost the game on three costly errors, which the Saratoga club coupled up with hits.

The visitors scored first, but that was the only time they crossed the counting rubber during the game.

R. Batterbee, who received the nomination for mound work for Port Arthur, executed the task well, and scattered nine hits through the game for the Saratoga boys to look at. The score:

TOUGH OUTLOOK

This is going to be a tough year on the free swimmers in the major leagues.

Players who take a healthy cut at the ball, a la Babe Ruth or Bobby Veach, are certain to find it a more difficult matter to get them safe.

Already Bobby Veach is doing bench duty at Detroit, presumably for inability to hit consistently. While Ruth will hardly be benched, it is a cinch he will find the pitchers much more difficult to solve this year.

The lively ball has made it necessary for the pitchers to take fewer chances with the free swimmers. The slowing up process seems to solve the solution.

TEXACOS PLAY ISLAND TODAY

Other Good Games Scheduled for Week

Local fandom, rested for several days from the baseball diamond, will return to it this afternoon to witness the first tangle of the week, which is scheduled to start at 5 o'clock between the Islanders and Shippens-Old Aden's fast squad.

Both teams are stronger than they were presented to fandom during the past week of City League contests, and consequently, the fans are promised a better grade of ball.

Skipper Gardner has Choate back on his line, and it is probable that both Choate and Spidle will be placed in uniforms of the Island club again immediately.

The batteries for today's game have not been announced.

JOINS YANKS

Hinkie Haines, former Penn State football and baseball star, is now a member of the New York Yankees.

Haines and Killinger starred at Penn State about the same time. Killinger had the edge in football and there was little to choose between them in baseball from a college standpoint.

The New York Yankees paid the two collegian stars plenty of jack to sign. Killinger, most figured out of the two, has failed as a big leaguer. He is now with Atlanta, in the Southern Association.

Manager Huggins believes Haines has a chance. Haines is a wonderful fielder, has a great arm and is very fast, but he is just so-so at the bat.

The college ball player doesn't care much for speed. Recently Haines saw Walter Johnson shut out the Yankees, 3 to 0, at Washington. Johnson was very fast, had one of his good days.

"I am glad I'm warming the bench today with Johnson showing all that speed," said Haines to Babe Ruth.

"His fast one today was his slow ball 10 years ago," replied Ruth in all seriousness.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

It's most unusual to have black lemon pies.

"The next thing," said Misterblack lemon pie, "the Ragged Man, the Twins and Tatters, the Ragged Man, to the Twins in Ragged Land, is to help the Chimney Sweep sweep out the chimneys. We Raggeds help him every year. Do you wish to come along?"

"Oh, yes," said Nancy, who usually decided everything for her brother as well as herself. "Where does he live?"

"He lives under the hill by the old water-fall, the better to wash his brooms," answered Mr. Tatters. "He keeps a dozen and three quarters because each of us has to have one."

So away they all went to the water-fall. Mister Tatters leading the way and Nancy and Nick and Rag Tag and Bob Tail and Vagabond and Shabby Coat and Harum Scutum and all the other Raggeds following.

There stood the Chimney Sweep waiting, the brooms in a row behind him.

"I'm glad you have come," he said. "We'll be off at once. The chimneys are so full of soot the stoves won't draw. Only this morning the Baker Man spoiled a baking of bread."

"Then Nancy and Nick can go there and clean out his chimneys at once," said Mister Tatters, the Ragged Man, to the Chimney Sweep. "I'm sure they are willing."

"Certainly," said Nancy obligingly. "Where does he live?"

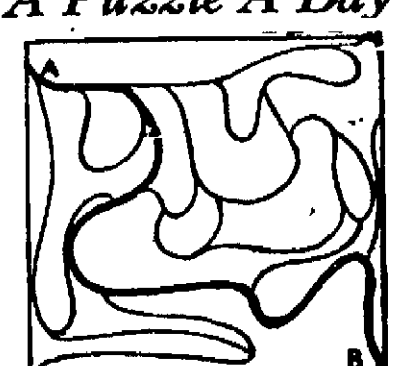

"He lives in town," answered the Sweep. "His house is on the second one on the second street. Here are the brooms."

Away went the Twins in their Magic Shoes to the Baker Man's house.

Down the big chimney they slid and began to sweep. But the Baker Man had nine lemon pies in the oven and the soot got in every one. Instead of white meringue on top, they had black.

"I'll just charge ten cents apiece extra for them," said the Baker Man, "for it's most unusual to have

COVINGTON AND WADE VICTORS

Chief Word Loses Strength in Ward 3

FINAL VOTE HEAVY

No Lack of Interest Shown in Afternoon Poll

W. W. Covington, Port Arthur's new chief of police, and B. Wade, commissioner of streets and improvements for a second term, will take office for a term of two years in their respective positions on May 29.

Both Covington and Wade were swept into office by large majorities at the conclusion of Tuesday's run-off city election. Covington polled a majority of 3,000 votes over present incumbent, Chief M. B. Word of the police department, and Commissioner Wade, present commissioner, led his opponent, K. E. Warren, for the commission.

Comparative Figures

Figures of the run-off yesterday and the election held May 5, tell an interesting story.

Chief Word defeated Covington in the May 5 race by an even 100 votes, the entire poll of 3,988 cast for the office of chief of police having been split among eight candidates. Word and Covington, however, were considerably out in the lead, with Johnson a runner up. In the first election, it was Word, 1,198; Covington, 1,098; Johnson, 938; Baker, 511; Hyde, 50; Jones, 71; Leach, 34; and Duggan 18 votes.

Chief-Elect Covington not only overcame the 100 majority of Word in the first race, but netted an extra 500 votes in the run off. Covington's majority was confined strictly to Ward 3, where he polled 1,415 votes to 518 for Word. In the other two boxes the totals were:

Ward No. 1, Covington 226, Word 310; Ward No. 2, Covington 352, Word 359.

Wade Gains Strength

The vote yesterday was considerably less than that of May 5. On May 5, there were 3,988 votes cast for chief of police, and yesterday but 3,486.

In the commissioner's race, Wade defeated Warren by a count of 31 votes on May 5, the poll of 4,012 for that office having been divided amongst five candidates for the privilege of presiding over the department of streets and improvements. Wade and Warren, however, were pronounced by top men with Mingle runner up. In the May 5 race the results were: Wade, 1,455; Warren, 1,454; Mingle, 717; Conners, 190; and Mauley, 167.

Commissioner Wade, in the run off Tuesday, not only held his lead over Warren but annexed the huge majority of 728 votes over Warren. Wade carried all three of the city boxes. The run off vote was:

$8,000 IN BETS CHANGE HANDS

Sums Varied from $1500 to $50 and Under in Election

Hot sporting blooded Port Arthurians today were considering entering courts with personal bankruptcy cases following the peeling off of individual rolls with the termination of Tuesday's run-off election it was reliably circulated about town today.

There was considerably more than Dane Rumer at work in disseminating information to the effect that two prominent citizens were forced to dig deep in their jeans to meet wagers aggregating $1500 each, another had to "pony up" a cool $1000 and still two others wrote checks worth $500 each, when they found themselves on the losing side of the political pendulum—that of backing the present chief of police changes.

A real estate man collected twelve hundred berries he had labelled with "Covington to win."

There's no report out on the total of smaller wagers ranging from the hundreds of dollars down to the well known saw buck and chicken feed bets. However, were the truth known, the belief is rife that several thousands more would be added to the total money changing hands.

A conservative estimate today placed the total at $8,000.

Hammer Slayer Tells Inside Story of Her Escape and Ambition to Become 'First Lady' of Republic

TEGUIGUALPA, Honduras, May 22.—Clara Phillips, "hammer murderer," fled to Honduras in the belief that the government would be overthrown and that she and Jesse Carson, her "husband," would emerge from the revolution as dictators of the country. This was revealed by Mrs. Phillips today, in her first story of her jail break and remarkable flight across Mexico, exclusively obtained by the United Press. Walking out of Los Angeles jail "under the nose of the guard," she escaped to Mexico, joined Carson, was captured by Mexican rebels, liberated, hid in a wild volcanic region, and finally started for Honduras with a fund of $80,000, while a steamer loaded with munitions followed her down the coast. But the plot which the "tiger woman" was to have been set up as "the first lady of the land," was frustrated, and she found herself in a cell, arrested for extradition to California to serve time for beating Mrs. Meadows to death with a hammer in a fit of jealous rage.

Carson Confesses Activities

Carson, in a statement to the Honduras authorities today, made a full confession of his part in the conspiracy to tear down the existing government. He said many Americans were involved in the plot which was directed from Vera Cruz.

Mrs. Phillips also made a free statement of her part in it. She came here from Mexico, she said, in the firm belief that the revolution would be successful and that unlimited money would be at her disposal.

According to information given out this morning, a number of applications have been filed with the officials of the Chamber of Commerce for the secretary-municipality, but no definite steps looking toward the successor for Leroy G. Stump have been taken.

It was learned this morning that the applicants include both residents of Port Arthur and men of other localities.

It is possible that some recommendation will be made by the officers of the Chamber of Commerce within the near future, although no intimation has been made as to who will likely be suggested to the directors as a successor to Manager Stump.

BUREAU EXPERT HERE FOR VETS

Urges Ex-Warriors to Take Action on U.S. Insurance

With the arrival at noon today of A. E. Rutter, war risk insurance expert, ex-service men in Port Arthur started making appointments with him for reinstating their insurance.

This is the word given out by Red Cross officials, who have thrown open the Red Cross hut, Fifth street and Dallas avenue, to Rutter during his stay in Port Arthur today, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, reinstating the government insurance for ex-service men in the city.

A call to the hut will get a definite appointment for ex-service men desiring to reinstate their insurance, the officials said, Rutter will be available in the evenings, also, they said. Thursday night the Red Cross has arranged for him to speak before the Veterans of Foreign Wars, meeting at the Red Cross hut at 7:30.

In an effort to let ex-service men in the city know of the chance to reinstate the war risk insurance, the Red Cross has addressed scores of letters to ex-service men in the city and had notices posted on the bulletin boards at the refineries and the Texas Company's terminal.

Logan Hit by Shortage in Office Rooms

Nosing around the second floor of the city hall, looking over the crannies and corners, counting the windows in this office, making note of the view from another, Mayor J. P. Logan today sought the quarters he will occupy for the next two years that he will serve as Port Arthur's first full time mayor.

Although his honor did not give out any definite statement of his choice after his inspection trip, it is believed by city officials that he will take over the office in the southeast corner, on the second floor, now occupied by A. P. Rollins, consulting engineer, and his force.

"This is the most desirable office in the building," Rollins said. "We are practically through with our inside workings, and can move out any time. All of our job now takes us out on the streets, superintending the street construction work."

PHONE TIE-UP IS BEING REMEDIED

Switchboard Changes to Be Completed Soon

Wholesale telephone trouble in Port Arthur, especially noticeable in the business district for several days, is being eliminated as rapidly as work can be conducted, according to announcements made this morning by Manager J. W. Waltrip of the local telephone exchange.

Switchboard Changes

The trouble, he said, has been necessitated through certain changes in switchboard arrangements at the telephone office which must be completed in order to bring the telephone service up to a higher standard.

In this connection, Manager Waltrip had the following to say this morning:

"We are readjusting the switch board at the phone office, which means that the company is having to throw the work equivalent to three operators on two. Operation under this condition frequently brings about the connection of three phones when only two are desired for the conversation."

CONDITION OF REP. J. O. MERRIMAN UNCHANGED

There is no appreciable change in his condition, they said. Merriman has been ill since the January sessions of the Texas legislature, when he was forced to return from Austin to his home at Port Neches because of his health.

THREE MEXICANS SHOT IN FEUD

Squabble Over House Results Fatally for One

Jose Arce, Mexican, was shot in the head, a Mexican woman was peppered about the neck and chest with bird shot, and another Mexican shot with bird shot in the chest and arm Tuesday night about 9 o'clock in the Mexican colony off West Sixteenth street.

Fifteen minutes later, B. S. Hernandez, Mexican, rushed into the Houston avenue fire station and was held prisoner by Captain J. C. Enright until Detective Bee Cowan and other city officers arrived.

Argument Over House

It appears, from meager and somewhat distorted details of the shooting the officers gathered from the Mexican settlement, that the affray resulted from an argument concerning the renting of a dwelling in the colony.

Hernandez claims to have rented a house in the colony, and said that last night three Mexicans came to the place and ordered him away, firing pistols at him. He returned fire with a double barreled shotgun, according to the story he gave the police, and Arce, probably fatally wounded, was brought to the hospital soon after.

The woman at first refused to be brought to the hospital, it is reported, but later was rushed to the Mary Gates and given medical attention. Authorities believe she was attracted to the street by the shot, and then struck by stray bullets. She is not dangerously injured.

Denied Rental of House

According to information gained from Mexicans in the colony by Detective Cowan, Hernandez had attempted to rent a dwelling in the vicinity but was told by the keeper of the colony, according to the detective, that he couldn't rent a place. It is believed Arce, in charge of the colony, came to the dwelling last night to repossess his occupancy of the place and the shooting followed.

Hernandez, however, informed the officers that he rented the place, located at No. 13 Fifteenth street, Tuesday morning, and was moving into it last night when the trouble ensued.

From details of the affray learned by Detective Cowan it was reported by a Mexican girl in the vicinity that five shots were fired, three of which sounded as if they might have come from a pistol while two sounded loud, presumably the reports of the shotgun.

FLEET FAILS TO LOCATE FISH

Ill Luck Trails Smacks of Adams 3 Days

Salt water fishing is blown up. At least for the present that's true, local Isaac Walton declares.

They point to the flood of fresh water pouring down through Lake Sabine and the ship canal and spreading far out into the Gulf—20 miles out, according to some estimates.

So until the salt water gets a chance to trickle back around the jetties, fishing parties might as well prepare themselves for strings of catfish and other fresh water fishermen of the finny tribes, these fishermen say.

For three days now the John R. Adams fishing fleet has sailed out looking for the briny deep and its schools of salt water fish, and for three days it has returned with not a drop of fish in sight, Will Adams said today.

Bryan Again Opposes Fight on Evolution

LIBERALS IN CONTROL

Assembly Endorses Harding World Court Plan

INDIANAPOLIS, May 23.—A divided report was submitted by the bills and overtures committee of the Presbyterian church on the request of the Philadelphia Presbytery asking that Dr. Harry Fosdick be prevented from occupying the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church, New York City, for alleged heresy.

The majority of the committee recommended that the general assembly reply to the petitioners that it would be inappropriate to act now while the New York presbytery itself is investigating the preaching of Dr. Fosdick.

Still less would the assembly assume to indicate the conclusions to be reached by this inquiry," the majority report declared.

The minority report reaffirmed the principle of the virgin birth of Christ as an essential part of the Christian religion.

Adoption of the majority report will leave the question unsettled until next year. Adoption of the minority would compel the assembly to take action against Dr. Fosdick as teaching principles contrary to the Presbyterian faith.

Bryan Flays Liberals

William Jennings Bryan reopened his fight against the theory of evolution in the assembly.

"Our religion must be a real one," he declared. The consumer interrupted the report of a special committee on seminaries to renew the battle of evolution, on which he was defeated yesterday. "We will soon reach the climax when we decide that a preacher may call Christ the son of Joseph and not the Son of God."

Announcements suggested by Bryan to the report were adopted. The assembly endorsed President Harding's world court plan as a most important step toward world peace.
